ROYAL NAVAL ASSOCIATION

FIRESIDE CHATS

Many of our members have fed back that they struggle to get home from work in time for our weekly Fireside Chats, so we have decided to trial a slightly later start time of 1830. This will commence from NEXT WEEK, not this week as stated in the Semaphore Short.

Tonight we'll be joined by former RNA membership secretary, the legend that is Nigel Huxtable, who will be discussing his Royal Naval career highlights and adventures as a photographer. It will begin at 1800, as usual. Apologies for the confusion! Monday mornings are perhaps not the best time to be sending out our newsletters!
